

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 3, 2008

Contact: Jillian Pastoor

(517) 372-5976 ext. 11

Searching for EVE

Do you use search engines to find information on the Web? Use www.goodsearch.com and you will help raise funds for EVE, Inc. (End Violent Encounters), Ingham County's domestic violence shelter. GoodSearch is an easy to use search engine powered by Yahoo, which donates 50 percent of its revenue to non-profit organizations. After selecting EVE, Inc. as the recipient organization, each GoodSearch will automatically raise funds for EVE, Inc., which will go directly to helping victims of domestic violence. You can even put GoodSearch in your browsers' toolbar for easier access. Visit www.goodsearch.com today and be sure to indicate EVE, Inc. as the recipient of your GoodSearch donation to help End Violent Encounters in our community. For more information, please visit www.eveinc.org or call us at 517-372-5976.

EVE, Inc., formerly the Council Against Domestic Assault (CADA), was founded in 1977 as a resource for women who were victims of domestic violence. Since then EVE, Inc. has grown to offer a 24-hour crisis line, advocacy, counseling, personal protection order assistance, support groups, children's programs, dating violence prevention, and domestic violence education. EVE's programs are free of charge and dependent on community support. Last year EVE, Inc. sheltered 368 women and children at EVE's house for 7,062 safe nights.

###